

Job Posting: Learning Facilitator (Virtual and In-person)

Sport for Life is recognized as a team of global experts on the Canadian Sport for Life movement, Long-Term Development in Sport and Physical Activity, and physical literacy development. The purpose of the Canadian Sport for Life movement is to improve the quality sport and physical literacy ecosystems. Sport for Life links sport, education, recreation, health and governments to align community, provincial and national programming. Through Long-Term Development in Sport and Physical Activity and physical literacy development, Sport for Life works to be a catalyst for positive change.

Sport for Life is seeking learning facilitators to deliver in-person and/or virtual workshops. Learning facilitators lead workshops, support coordination when applicable, and promote deliveries to prospective workshop hosts. Sport for Life learning facilitators have a key role in assisting with the development of a new generation of community leaders through clear learning objectives. We see our learning facilitators as ambassadors of Sport for Life and are asking for your help in reaching even more people on the topics of quality sport and physical literacy.

We are looking for facilitators for the following workshops:

1. Inclusive Physical Literacy
2. Indigenous Communities: Active for Life
3. Indigenous Long-Term Participant Development
4. Introduction to Belonging in Sport and Physical Activity
5. Introduction to Physical Literacy
6. Physical Activity and Physical Literacy in the Early Years
7. Physical Literacy for Older Adults
8. Physical Literacy Movement Preparation
9. Quality Physical Literacy Experiences
10. Quality Sport for Communities and Clubs

Role and Responsibilities

- Deliver a minimum of one workshop per year.
- Clearly articulate how to apply the content, reference materials and the learning process to achieve the various learning outcomes,
- Relate to participants through sound facilitation interventions, reflection, and summative and formative feedback, and
- Lead a learning situation using effective communication and presentation skills such as listening, clarifying, reflecting, questioning, reviewing and debriefing.
- Represent Sport for Life in a positive manner with partner organizations.

- Promote each workshop you are trained to deliver and work to acquire workshop hosts in your region.

Special Requirements

- Successful applicants will be required to undergo a criminal record check prior to commencing their role.
- This position requires flexible working hours, including evenings and weekends, as necessary.

Preferred Skills & Qualifications

- 2+ years of work experience (teaching, coaching or working in a leadership role) relevant to the workshop topic you are interested in facilitating
- Experience facilitating learning in adult education environments (in person and virtually)
- Knowledge of workshop content
- A post-secondary education and/or combined work experience, education and lived experience
- A commitment to the Sport for Life mission and values
- Demonstrated leadership in the field of physical literacy and quality sport

Training Pathway

All interested learning facilitators must successfully complete the following pathway in order to become a learning facilitator:

1. Participate in a workshop (duration ranges from 1.5-8 hours depending on the workshop).
2. Complete training on workshop content and delivery (One hour).
3. Co-facilitate a workshop delivery (duration ranges from 1.5-8 hours depending on the workshop).

Learning facilitators will receive $200-$450 for each workshop delivered, and mileage and food expenses will be covered when extensive travel or long hours are required for workshop delivery. Learning facilitators will be hired as independent contractors by Sport for Life.

Please complete an application here by February 17, 2023 at 5:00 p.m. PST, including your:

- contact information,
- responses to a brief questionnaire highlighting your interest and relevant experience,
- indication of which workshop you are interested in facilitating, and
- resume.

If you are interested in multiple workshops please submit multiple applications.

If you have any questions or need any assistance through the application process, please reach out to Thalia Moore, Senior Manager of Knowledge Scaling, at thalia@sportforlife.ca.

We thank all applicants for their interest, but note that only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

Sport for Life is committed to fostering an equitable workplace as a source of excellence, cultural enrichment and social strength. We welcome expressions of interest from those who identify with historically underrepresented groups such as: Indigenous, First Nation, Métis and Inuit peoples, people of a myriad of gender identities and racialized minorities, people of diverse ethnic origins, and various religious and spiritual beliefs; and people with invisible and visible varied abilities; people at various ages and stages of life; and people of the LGBTQ2SI+community. We recognize this is not an exhaustive list of all identities.

We believe sharing your identity is your choice in the application process. Therefore, if this job description entices you then you are welcome to apply. If you have any accessibility needs, then please let us know at any point in the application process where you feel comfortable doing so. You can contact Billie Tes, Manager of People of Culture directly at billie@sportforlife.ca.

To learn more about Sport for Life and our knowledge scaling opportunities, visit www.sportforlife.ca and our online campus at https://sportforlife-sportpourelavie.ca/catalog_classroom.php. And for more on physical literacy, visit www.physicalliteracy.ca.