 - e) World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) – An independent, international, not-for-profit organization responsible for administering the World Anti-Doping Code and the promotion of clean sport internationally.
 - f) World Anti-Doping Code – Set of rules that govern doping control internationally. The full code can be viewed here.

Purpose

2. The Sport for Life Society is committed to clean sport in Canada and endorses the Canadian Anti-Doping Program and the World Anti-Doping Code. These guidelines confirm that the Sport for Life Society adopts the CADP.

Scope and Authority

3. These Guidelines apply to all Representatives.
4. The Sport for Life Society will respect any penalty enacted pursuant to the breach of the Canadian Anti-Doping Program, whether imposed by WADA or the CCES.

Provisions

5. The Sport for Life Society is unequivocally opposed to the practice of doping in sport on ethical, medical, and legal grounds.
6. The Sport for Life Society has adopted and agrees to abide by the Canadian Anti-Doping Program, as administered by the CCES, and as it may be amended from time to time.
7. In the event of a conflict between other anti-doping policies established by the Sport for Life Society and the CADP, the CADP shall prevail.

8. The Sport for Life Society will provide regular information and news on the anti-doping program domestically and internationally.
9. The Sport for Life Society will respect the sanctions applicable due to an anti-doping rule violation, whether imposed by WADA, the CCES, or any national or provincial sport organization.
10. The Sport for Life Society will comply with the CADP with respect to public announcements of positive test results.
11. All Representatives, Clients and persons sanctioned by virtue of the CADP will be ineligible to participate in any role and in any competition or activity organized, convened, held, or sanctioned by the Sport for Life Society as per the penalties imposed.
